INTRODUCING...

GLOBAL ALLIANCE CORPORATION

Global Alliance Corporation is an international forwarding and logistics association, with operations around the world, that covers Asia, Oceania, Europe, Africa, North and South America.

Headquartered in Hong Kong and incorporated in 2001, Global Alliance Corporation is a strategic integration of local and regional freight and logistics businesses operating as one entity. This means Global Alliance Corporation are able to offer a tested and trust-worthy partnership that provides clients with personalised services, tailored to individual logistical requirements.

The mission statement is to ensure each and every customer will enjoy an unequalled level of seamless service based on best industry standards. This is delivered through professionally managed network partners who are technical experts and excellent communicators.

The results-oriented focus means higher customer yields and expedited growth of Global Alliance Corporation's mutual business network.

As a NVOCC (non-vessel operating common carrier), Global Alliance Corporation trades under the name of Global Alliance Line.
